Red Oak 8,
Abraham Lincoln 5

RED OAK – Abraham Lincoln dropped a game at Red Oak, falling to the Tigers 8-5.

The Lynx were playing without regular starting pitcher Michaela Kennedy, who sat out with minor shoulder tendonitis.

Chelsea Acosta filled in well for Kennedy, but five A.L. errors hurt the Lynx's chances.

“We had to shift a few people around and that made it a little more challenging,” A.L. coach Pat Kroll said. “The five errors didn't help, and (Red Oak) hit the ball well.

“We'll take our lumps and go out tomorrow against Underwood at home.”

Lauren Rommel, Morgan Hively, Taylor Anderson and Taylor Powers each finished with two hits for the Lynx.

Maddie Holmgren paced Red Oak with a double and two RBIs while Jamie Rebel earned the victory.
