ATLANTIC – Abraham Lincoln pounded out 15 hits Wednesday to defeat Atlantic 9-3.

The Lynx led 4-1 going into the seventh inning before plating five insurance runs to put the game away.

“Those runs definitely gave us more confidence going into their last at-bat,” Lynx coach Pat Kroll said. “We hit very well tonight.”

Chelsea Acosta doubled twice in the game and drove in three runs and Lauren Meeker had a two-run double as well.
